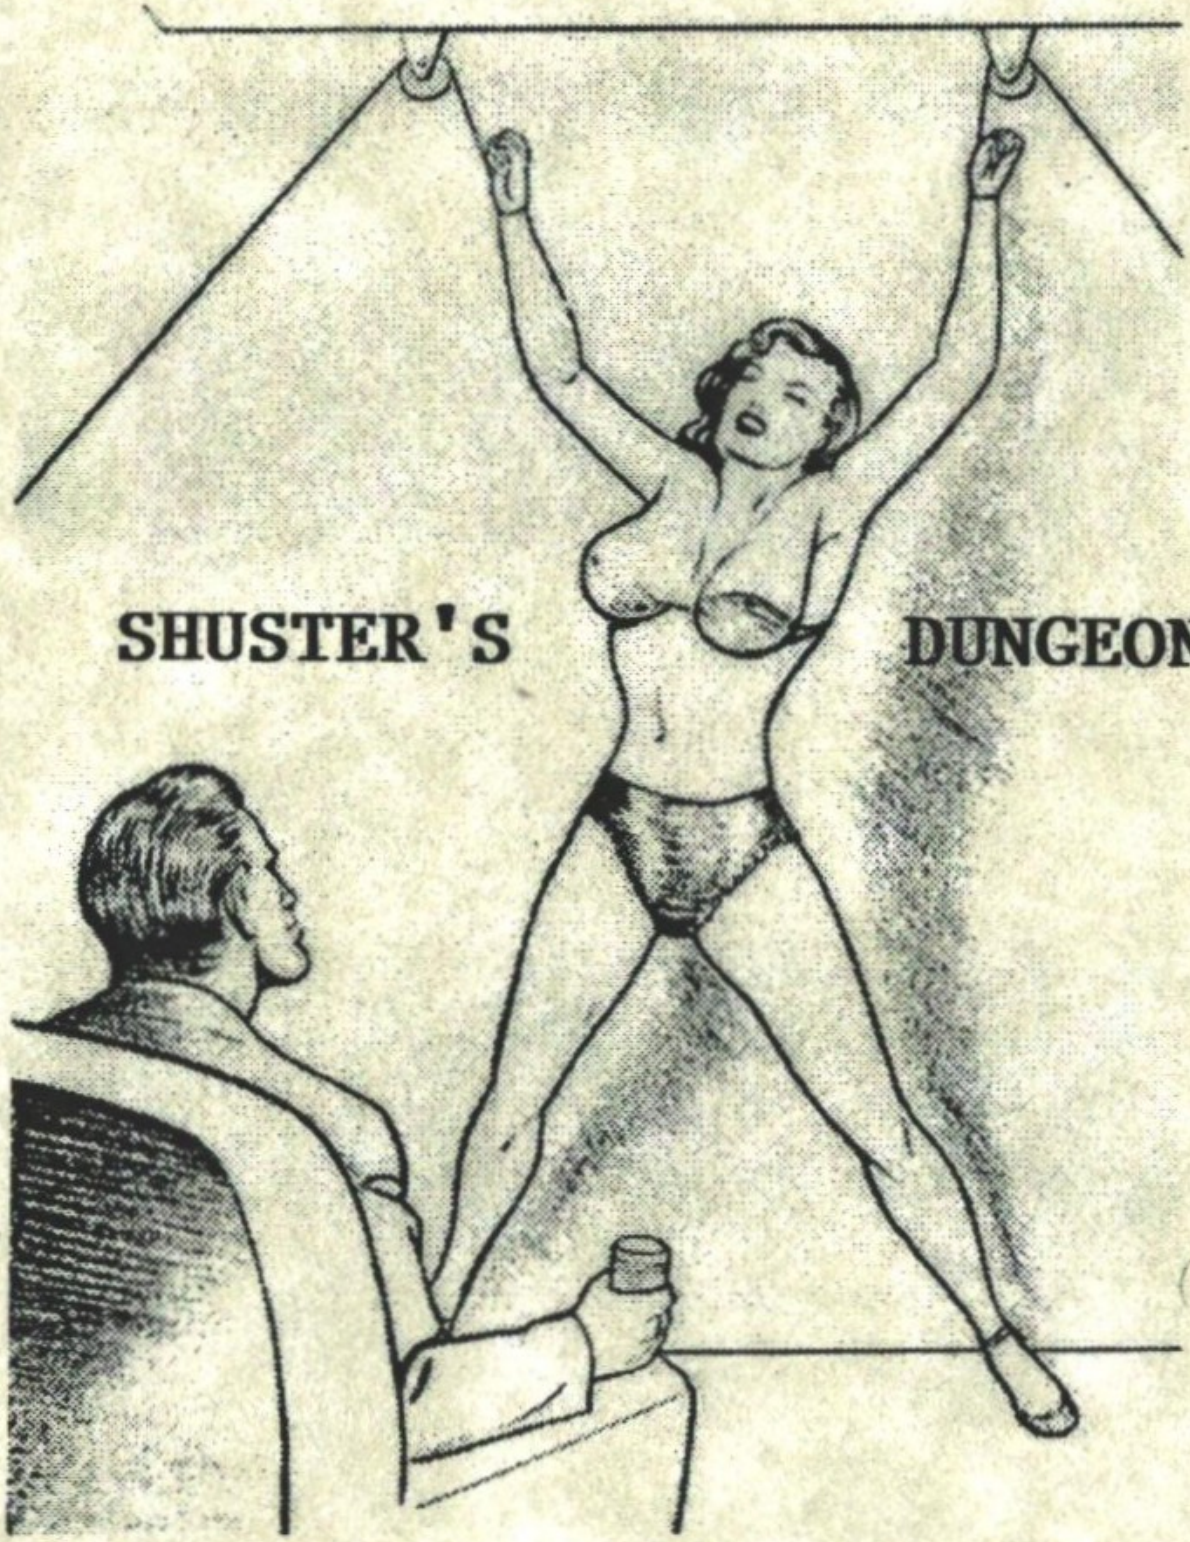
Ladyfinger #92



A SHOCKING SECRET HISTORY

SUPERMAN co-creator Joe Shuster was on trial... for murder!

It was 1954, and no one would know until 2009. They called it the Brooklyn Thrill Killers case.

The evidence was called Nights of Horror: a salacious and sadistic comics series the gutterfolk found irresistible and the judge found bad.

Even the Supreme Court later gave a judicious middle finger to the torturesmut, still on the loose after the killers had been dealt with.

Every copy was destroyed. They thought. Until we told you better, now. Take that, them!
